BUTLER, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1914.

NUMBER 5

FOSTER.

Johnnie McConnell of Ogallah, Kansas, was an arrival Saturday to visit his brother, Luther, and family of this place.

Harley Imel was a passenger east Monday noon.

Mrs. Cole and daughter, formerly old settlers of Walnut township are visitors at the Collier home south of town.

W. J. Parlier has completed a large corn crib for F. O. Treasure, which will hold several thousand bushels of corn.

Arthur Bankson and family moved to Rich Hill Saturday. We regret to lose Arthur and family from our midst.

Mrs. H. E. Arbogast and son, Vernie, were arrivals on Monday evening's local from Worland, where they had been to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. Grant and daughter, Seba, left Monday for Iowa, where they will spend a few weeks visiting relatives and friends in that state.

There will be a pie supper at the Greenview school house, Saturday night, November 21st. A fine program is being prepared. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Gat Selders and family and Mrs. J. W. Craig, of Enslay, Alabama, have moved to Old Walnut, and will occupy the Craig residence at that place. We understand the Old Walnut "cartoonist" Ira Craig, will return in the spring, which his many friends will be glad to learn.

J. W. Darby, manager for the Cannon Elevator Co., informed us he has shipped fourteen cars of corn from this place in two weeks. Corn is coming to market rapidly and the price paid is 55c. The farmers are getting almost as much as they paid last spring for Argentine corn.

T. J. Day of Butler will erect a tombstone in a few days at the grave of Fred Arbogast, who died at Centralia, Illinois, one year ago, after an absence of fifteen years, during which time his whereabouts were unknown to the family, and the remains were brought home for burial. The following verses we write:

In Memory of Fred
Just one year ago dear Fred we laid you,

Down in the grave so deep;
Amid the falling flakes of snow,
Where naught disturbs your sleep.
The many years that you were gone;
Gone, we knew not where;
Yet tenderly in memory dear,
You were followed with our prayer.

No sister there to drop a tear;
No mother to caress your brow,
When you were at home we were happy Fred,
But sorrow has clouded now.
Upon his grave I'll plant sweet flowers
And a weeping willow tree;
And bathe its roots with many a tear,
That it may shelter me.

Little Corrine McConnell gave a birthday party to a number of her little girl-friends on Saturday afternoon. She was six years old on Friday, November 13th, but celebrated on the following day. Ice cream and cake was served and the little folks amused themselves by playing various games. Miss Corrine received many nice presents. Those present were: Nadine Cecil, Juanita Robb, Mildred Lloyd, Jetta Morehouse, Pearl Oldham, Leona Shelton, Francis Duke, Minnie Hamman, Goldie and Pearl Scholes, Ona Zimmerman, Iva Scholter, Joanna and Prudence Neace and Lora Grant.

A Birthday Surprise Dinner
The lady friends of Mrs. J. H. McCollough gathered at the home in the south part of town Saturday, November 14th, it being her 45th birthday. The dinner had been planned and kept a secret and when the dinner hour arrived the ladies with well filled baskets stole a march and took Mrs. McCollough by surprise. The table was laden with all kinds of good things to eat that would duplicate any reception given in honor of the Queen of Spain. Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey and family, D. H. Arbogast and wife, Mrs. Sarah Grant, Mrs. Frank Jennings, Mrs. Amanda Webb, Mrs. F. A. Scholter, Mrs. Robert Treasure, Mrs. Perry Jennings, Mrs. Charlie Scroggins, Mr. and Mrs. Will Sower, Mrs. Ira Grant, Mrs. Ella Cecil, Mrs. Delbert McCollough and son, Melvin, Mrs. Hupp and Mrs. Myrtle Crow and daughter, Wilma, of Butler, Misses Dollie Wolfe and Marguerite Yates of Butler, Ethel Fortner of Johnston, Ada Arbogast and Seba Grant. A most enjoyable time was had and all departed in the evening wishing Mrs. McCollough many more happy birthday anniversaries.

James Miller Dead
Jim Miller, one of the automobile men who was so seriously hurt on Sunday at 1:30 o'clock Sunday by a car driven by a man named All, died at 1:30 o'clock Sunday.

given him. He passed peacefully away, surrounded by his family and near relatives when the spirit took its flight. Some three weeks before his death he was converted and united with the M. E. church and died happy in the faith of a home in the better world. James Franklin Miller was born February 8th, 1877, at Knobnoster, Mo., where he grew to manhood. He came to Foster eleven years ago and has resided here until his death which occurred at the home of his father-in-law, Alex Goodwin, Nov. 8th, 1914. Age 37 years and nine months. He was united in marriage to Miss Ida May Goodwin of this place at Atchison, Kans., December 15th, 1906. To this union were born three children, two boys and one girl, namely, Eugene Francis, Herman Raymond, and Claudine Elizabeth. Besides his family he leaves his aged mother, Mrs. Sarah Miller, of Knobnoster; two brothers and three sisters, Will and Montgomery Miller of Knobnoster, Mrs. Lizzie Caldwell and Mrs. Will Boyd of Warrensburg and Mrs. Fletch Coats of Pittsburg, Kans., besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Funeral was held from the M. E. church Monday at 3:00 o'clock conducted by Rev. Hunt of Hume. The rostrum was heavily draped in mourning and the casket laden with beautiful flowers and the large concourse of people who had gathered to pay their tribute of respect to the deceased was evidence of the high esteem in which he was held. The last sad rite was conducted at the grave by the brotherhood of the United Mine Workers of America in which the deceased was a member. The remains were laid to rest in the Salem cemetery. The family of the deceased has the sympathy of the entire community in this their sad hour of bereavement.

A Card of Thanks

To our friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the long illness of our husband and son do we express our sincere and heartfelt thanks.
